

Museum in the Park

Stroud District (Cowle) Museum Service

Outreach

The Museum offers a number of different outreach sessions, allowing us to bring The Museum in the Park out to you and your venue.

A number of characters and themes are available, including:

- Bernard and Beatrice's Complete Guide to Modern Art: A two-person performance looking at the history of modern art. (KS2/3)
- Air Raid: An interactive one-person performance as an ARP warden takes groups through the necessary precautions during an air raid in WWII. (KS2)
- Fantastic Plastic: A 'game show' performance explaining the history of plastic and how materials are made and used.
- Dark Tales: The Spaniel in the Works Theatre Company performs folk tales from the Cotswolds
- Snaggles: A storytelling event for younger children
- Prince Albert's Palace of Varieties: A performance in music-hall style, covering 4 aspects of the Victorian Age: Queen Victoria's life, inventions of Victorian times, the lives of the poor, the British Empire. (KS2)

There are also a number of Museum characters, providing cameo roles on a variety of topics. These include:

- Mikael Pedersen (inventor)
- Smallpox nurse
- The Apothecary
- The Collector
- The Victorians
