Stroud District (Cowle) Museum Service

Local History: Transport

A visit for this topic can include Isambard Kingdom Brunel, referencing the viaducts and GWR at Stroud as depicted in our paintings. In association with Spaniel in the Works Theatre Company, meet Mr Brunel, a Railway Porter who will teach you about Stroud Time, or a nervous Victorian passenger on the newly opened London line in 1845. View old photographs showing various means of transport across the ages in our locality and examine the Toll Charges on our board from Berkley Gate.

By arrangement with the Museum, it is possible to see the miniature railway 'in steam' and talk with the Society of Engineers in Stratford Park.

The Learning and Programmes Officer will consult you over the aims of your visit and devise sessions accordingly.
